The Central Methodist

Organ of the Kentucky and Louisville Conferences and the Property of These Two Conferences

This old and well-established Paper which has so well served the Cause of Methodism in Kentucky and West Virginia for so many Years, has recently been bought by the Kentucky and Louisville Conferences, and is now the Property of the Church. A pertinent Question arises: Will the people who constitute the Church, support their own Paper?

The Kentucky and Louisville Conferences believe they will.

EVERY PREACHER MUST BE AN AGENT: EVERY MEMBER A SUBSCRIBER.

Subscription Price, $1.00 per Year in Advance. To Preachers and Widows of Itinerant Preachers, $1.00.

In many respects this is the most vital interest of the Methodist Church in Kentucky. Upon its success depend all the other enterprises of the Church.

REASONS FOR TAKING THE CENTRAL METHODIST.

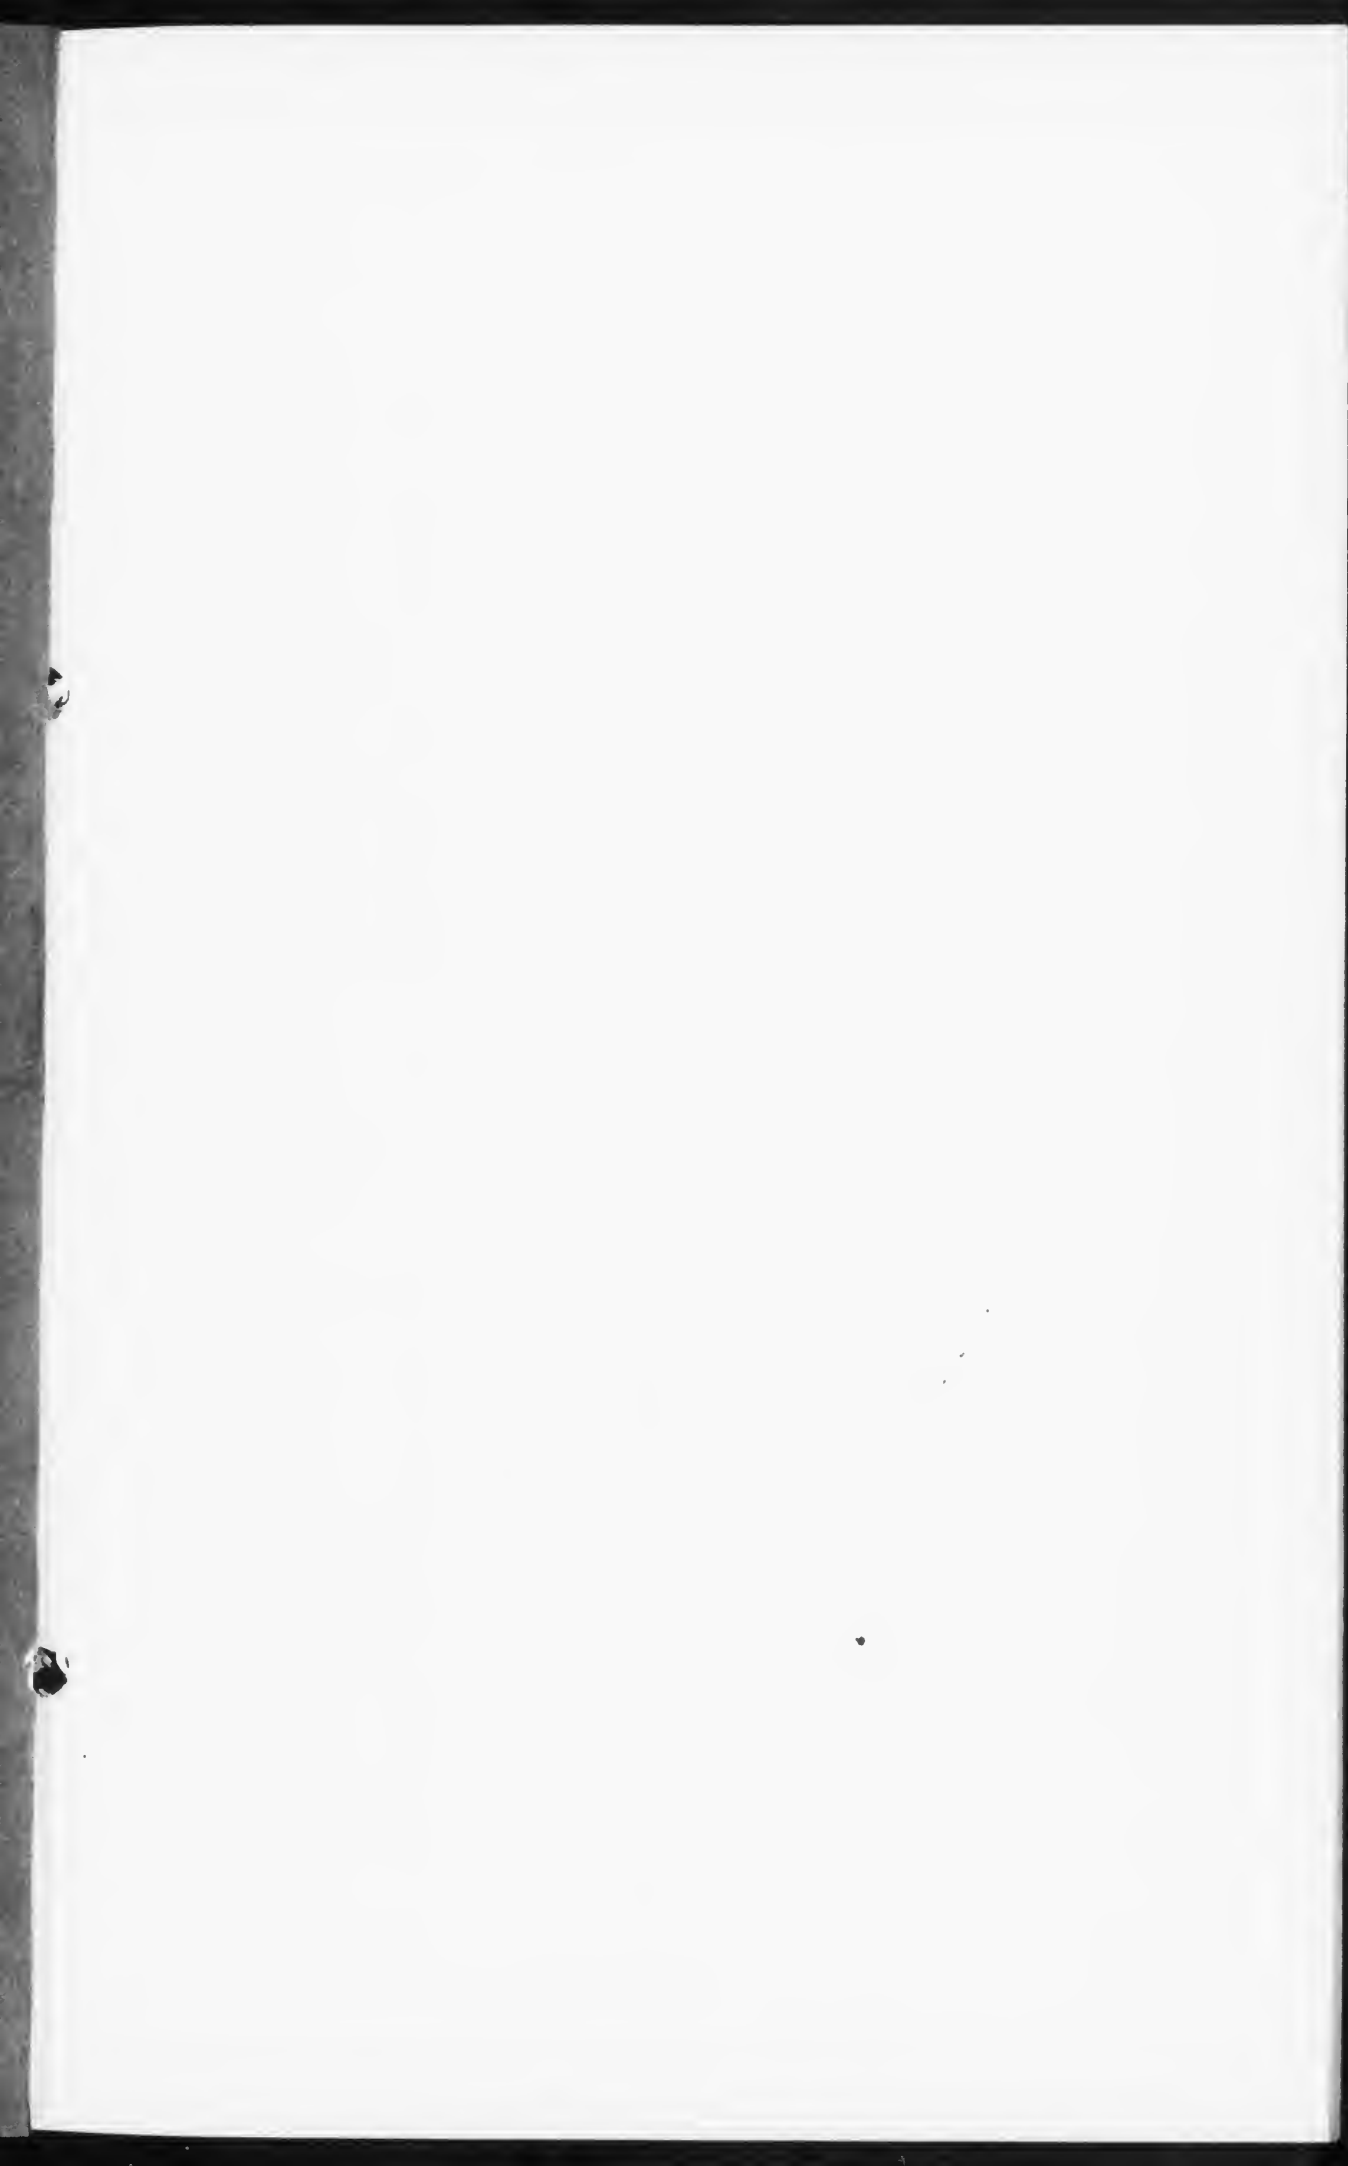

1. It will make me a broader, more intelligent, and more useful Church Member.
2. It will be a blessing to my Home. It will keep constantly before my children the Church and its work.
3. I take my farm paper, my business journal, my lodge organ; my religion is worth as much to me as any of these.
4. I am obligated to do it. This is one of the Institutions of the Church. I promised to support these Institutions. I must support the Church Paper, or else I will fail in keeping my Church Vows.
5. The Paper is indispensable to the work of the Church. We can not do without it. But it can not run without a subscription list. If the Church members do not subscribe for it, it will fail. As a Church member I must do my part to make a success one of the things necessary to the success of my own Church.

Send all Communications to, and make all Checks and Money Orders payable to, a preacher to medical work. On motion, Lew G. Wallace was located solely on this ground.

THE CENTRAL METHODIST,

Certificate of Ordination—Bishop Denny presented the following Certificate of Ordination:

This certifies that I, Collins Denny, one of the Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, on Sunday morning, September the eighth, in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and eighteen, in the city of Cynthiana, State of Kentucky, after a sermon I preached in the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, did ordain each of the following traveling preachers to the office of a deacon in the Church of God, each one having been elected to that office by the Kentucky Annual Conference of the aforementioned Church, and each one having been presented by W. E. Arnold, an elder and the Secretary of Kentucky Annual Conference: Enos Waggoner, William Letcher Byrd, Benjamin Sewell, George Selby Conant, and Ozie Claude Mingledorff.

At the same time I ordained each of the following local preachers to the same office, each one having been elected by the same Annual Conference and presented by the same elder: John Albert Linn, George Allen Young, Claude McClellan Fawns, and Julius Johnson Davis.

In this service J. L. Clark, an elder, read the Epistle immediately after the ordination of the deacons, and assisted in the laying on of hands by J. L. Clark, E. L. Southgate, C. L. Bohon, and M. T. Chandler, all elders, I ordained each of the following traveling preachers to the office of elder in the Church of God, each one having been elected by the aforementioned Kentucky Annual Conference, and each one having been presented by W. E. Arnold, mentioned above: Leslie Claude De Armond, Robert Martin Criswell, Samuel Walter Dean, Sidney Taylor Fitch, William Henry McGowan, Edgar Harlan Ritchie and Ozie Claude Mingledorff.

At the same time I ordained Henry Walter Bromley, a local preacher, to the office of elder in the Church of God who had been elected by the same Annual Conference and was presented by the same elder, W. E. Arnold.

Given under my hand in the city of Cynthiana, State of Kentucky, this eighth day of September, in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and eighteen.

J. H. Hewlett—J. H. Hewlett, a local preacher of the Lexington District, being duly recommended, was elected to local Deacon's Orders, and was ordained by Bishop Denny.

Reports—Reports from the Committee on Evangelism, the Sunday School Board, and the Commission on Finance were read and adopted. See Supplement.

Resolution—The following resolution was adopted:

"Be It Resolved, That the new management of the Central Methodist be requested to publish in the Central during the Conference year the reports and recommendations of the Boards and important committees of this body, and to editorially explain and emphasize the same.

G. W. CRUTCHFIELD,
H. G. TURNER,
O. B. CROCKETT,
WILL B. CAMPBELL."

Preachers' Institute—The following was adopted:

"Whereas, There is no adequate provision for giving our young preachers practical instruction in methods of conducting church work, and

"Whereas, They are in great need of such instruction,

"Resolved, That W. E. Arnold, W. V. Cropper, and J. L. Clark be appointed a committee to plan and conduct a Preachers' Institute of not less than one week at the Kentucky Wesleyan College during the summer of the coming year.

"Resolved, Second, That it be made the duty of all undergraduates to attend said Institute; and

"Resolved, Third, That to defray the expenses we set aside from the assessment for Aid for Ministerial Students $150.00 or so much of it as may be needed.

C. H. GREER,
J. P. STROTHER."

Resolution of Thanks—The following resolution of thanks was unanimously adopted by a rising vote:

"Resolved, That we hereby express our hearty thanks and genuine appreciation of the true hospitality we have received from the people of Cynthiana, and from all who have in any way contributed to our pleasure and profit.

M. S. CLARK,
B. C. HORTON,
WILL B. CAMPBELL."

Appointments—The Minutes of the session were read and approved. Following the singing of Hymn No. 499 and prayer by T. F. Taliaferro, Bishop Denny announced the following changes in the charges of the Conference: Covington District: Take Melbourne from the California Circuit, and put with the Augusta Circuit. Take Carn-town from the Augusta Circuit, and put with the California Circuit.

Danville District: Mt. Zion charge discontinued, and Mt. Zion, in Mercer County, Junction City, and Wesley Chapel, from the Mackville Circuit, are placed with Gravel Switch and constitute the Gravel Switch Circuit, Mt. Zion, in Jessamine Co., and Brooklyn Bridge compose Brooklyn Bridge Circuit, Lynch Mines in Harlan County to become Lynch Mines Station.

Frankfort District: Cleveland Church taken from Port Royal Circuit and put on Gratz Circuit, Bethlehem taken from Gratz Circuit, and put in the Shelbyville District.

Jackson District: Campton and Hazel Green made a charge. Morgan and Wolf Circuit composed of the other churches from the Hazel Green charge.

Maysville District: East Maysville to become Maysville, Second Church. Dover Church taken from Washington Circuit, and put with Maysville, Second Church.

Shelbyville District—Pleasureville made a station. Eminence and Bethlehem made a charge.

The Bishop then read the following appointments, thus answering Question 53, "Where are the preachers station this year?"

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS.

Your Board of Missions is pleased to report the finest year in Missionary enthusiasm and collections we have ever had. Notwithstanding the disturbed conditions of the time and the heavy drafts which the various war interests have made upon our people, our collections are in advance of all previous records.

In view of this fact, we regard it as providential that our great Church has been called, in the celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of American Methodist Missions, to a task which involves the development of our spiritual resources, the enlargement of our missionary vision and the quickening of our sense of stewardship, and which on its practical side will provide during the next five years the sum of thirty-five million dollars for Missionary enterprise.

Of this amount the sum of $619,678.42 has been allotted to the Kentucky Conference.

We therefore recommend:

1. That this allotment be accepted as the minimum amount to be raised by this Conference and that no maximum limit be fixed; and
2. That Rev. Walter V. Cropper be appointed as Conference Missionary Secretary for the ensuing year, and that he be allowed a salary of $2,000.00 and necessary expenses, with the understanding that two-thirds of said salary and expenses are to be paid by the General Board and one-third paid out of the funds of this Board.

We nominate the following Committee on Evangelism: E. K. Pike, W. E. Darragh, J. T. Morgan, W. S. Vanderpool, and P. F. Adams.

We recommend for appointment as Conference Evangelists, Henry Walter Bromley, and J. W. Carter.

BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

The Kentucky Conference Board of Church Extension reports for the year just ended $4,573 collected, or 93 per cent of the assessment, this being the largest percentage, and the largest amount ever raised for the cause. Our Treasurer's report shows disbursements during the year of $4,687, our treasury being overdrawn to the amount $152.66. Before this meeting of the Board applications for aid aggregate $3,177, with only $2,286 from which to draw.

We have made donations for the coming year amounting to $2,077 as follows:

Stanford Church	$500
Dugansville Church	400
Wilmore Church	250
Lawrenceburg Parsonage	300
East Pulaski Parsonage	50
Port Royal Parsonage	300
W. W. Ball	152
Printing Minutes	100
Conference Cashier	25

The Church should be gratified at the large increase of Church Extension funds during the last quadrennium. The Loan Fund is now $1,106,326. Our Conference Loan fund is $1,541, and still the accessible funds are far from adequate to meet the needs of the growing church.

The attention of pastors is again called to the great variety of literature explaining and urging our cause which the Board will furnish without cost upon application.

This Board requests each Presiding Elder to provide in his district conference an opportunity for a representative of this Board to present the cause of Church Extension. We should keep before our people the Church Extension Loan Fund and the mutual advantage it proves if it is patronized. Our Sunday School Loan Fund should be continually increased by use of the Birthday Jar.

Congregations contemplating the erection of new buildings or the remodelling of present houses, should consult the Department of Church Architecture, at the general office, 115 Fourth Ave., Louisville.

W. R. JOHNSON, Chairman.

W. D. WELBURN, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE COLLEGE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Notwithstanding the large number of men going to war, we are glad to report an increased college attendance for the year.

We would at this time call special attention to our Department of Education. Graduates having taken the courses offered in Kentucky Wesleyan College will be certified (without examination) by the State Board of Education to teach in the High Schools of the State.

We report the continuance of our agreement with the College of Music at Lexington by which the best qualified teachers will give instruction in our Department of Music. This arrangement has proved most satisfactory during last year.

We are glad to report that the Government has given official notice of the establishment of a unit of the Students Army Training Corps at Kentucky Wesleyan College. This offers exceptional opportunity to college men. Members of the S. A. T. C. will be supplied with uniform and all military equipment, their board and tuition will be paid and they will receive the pay of privates. An army officer will be detailed to give instruction. It would be well for members of the Conference to bring this matter to the immediate attention of young men in their pastoral charges.

We are glad to report that Clark Hall, the dormitory for boys, has been improved at an expense of about $4,000.00.

The new hall for women was completed and occupied during the year. This is a first class building thoroughly furnished throughout. The building and furniture represent an expenditure of about $25,000.00.

Respectfully submitted,

E. G. B. MANN, Chairman

J. P. STROTHER, Sec'y.

CONFERENCE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

We note with pleasure the general success of our educational work throughout the Church, as indicated by the report of the General Board of Education.

We heartily approve the educational plans as outlined by the recent General Conference, and promise co-operation in carrying to successful conclusion the educational campaign for the increased endowment and equipment of our institutions.

We recommend the payment, out of the assessment for Aid to Ministerial Students, the fees in the Correspondence School of all undergraduates receiving less than $600.00 salary.

Since all undergraduates are required to take the Correspondence Course, we recommend the discontinuance of the payment to the Correspondence School 20 per cent. of our collection for Aid to Ministerial Students. This is made necessary because of the increased amount of fees to be paid out of this fund.

Since by increased endowment and equipment Kentucky Wesleyan is thoroughly prepared to meet the requirements of A-grade classification, we request the General Board of Education to thus classify the Wesleyan.

We recommend the appointment of Rev. G. W. Crutchfield as Conference Secretary of Education.

Your Conference Board has requested the presiding elders to appoint a quadrennial committee, composed of five members, to make nominations for filling vacancies in the Board of Education.

We recommend continuance of co-operation with the Louisville Conference in all educational matters in keeping with previous agreements. We note with pleasure the election of Rev. A. P. Lyon, D.D., President of Logan Female College. We wish the new President great success in his new field of labor.

We report the following statistics: Students, 128; Teachers, 12; Endowment, $97,194.83; New Endowment, Cash and Notes, $25,000; Value of Property, $147,000.

Signed, E. G. B. MANN, Ch'n.

J. P. STROTHER, Secretary.

SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

Your Sunday School Board, in view of the larger demands for efficient work and the need of teachers fully qualified, beg the Conference to heed our exhortations to fully co-operate with us in the execution of plans looking to the achievement of the greatest things ever undertaken in our Conference history.

No campaign for more permanent results to the church has been launched in recent years than the effort being put forth now by our General Sunday School Board for the organization of Teacher Training Classes throughout our connection.

Your Board feels that we must make 1918-'19 a year noted for the large number of classes organized and men and women graduated; the benefit accruing therefrom cannot be questioned for one moment. In connection therewith it is our desire to hold at Kentucky Wesleyan College, immediately following Commencement, a Teacher Training School. We hold it to be incumbent on all our church leaders to do all in their power to have a full representation at this school. This plea cannot be made too strong and too much value cannot be attached to the campaign and the school.

Junaluska will hold a feast of good things for all who attend and we hope that the Kentucky Conference will be able to more than double its delegation to the Sunday School Conference of this year.

The General Conference made some changes in our Sunday School laws; we urge upon all pastors and superintendents a careful reading of same. In harmony with these laws we call your attention to the work of the different departments and district organization, and request that you encourage each of these workers by falling in line with his plans. In addition to the District Secretaries the following are the departments: Elementary, Intermediate, Seniors, Young People, Adult, Teacher Training and Publicity.

Dr. E. B. Chappel is urging upon us the employment of a Field Secretary. We have been seriously handicapped in our work without such a leader. With the aid promised by the General Sunday School Board and the support your Conference Board is able to give, we hope to place a man in this service in the near future. We pray the Conference will grant our request for an open door into your churches and schools, when you shall be so fortunate as to receive a visit from him. Let us no longer suffer the embarrassment of comparing the progress of our schools with that of our sister denominations by failing to put forth our largest possible effort.

We call your attention to the following statistics for the year 1917 and the quadrennium 1914-'17: Increase of schools for the year, 33; for quadrennium, 630; increase of officers and teachers for the year, 1501; for quadrennium, 19,820; decrease of pupils for the year, 26077; increase for quadrennium, 272,281; gain over increase of church membership for quadrennium, 101,119. We have 19,844 Societies and 17,279 Sunday Schools. During the year 64,873 Sunday School pupils have been received into the Church, 285,965 during the quadrennium.

We regret to report that in presenting a large collection of books to our preachers and laymen at the seat of our Annual Conference, our Publishing House apparently ignores the existence of Sunday School books and other literature. Therefore, be it resolved, That we request Smith and Lamar to include in their display at our Annual Conference a full list of Sunday School publications.

C. H. GREER, Chairman.

EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD.

We, the Conference Board of Epworth Leagues, beg to submit the following report:

We regret to learn from the General Secretary that the statistics show a loss, giving the total number of Chapters as 3,795, and of members as 131,416. The League has its place in the Church and a very necessary work to do. At this time when our country is at war, the work of the young people should not be neglected. Although so many of our young men have been called and enlisted in the service of their country, it is the duty of pastor, presiding elder and members to give the League work more thought and consideration in order to hold the ranks steady until their return.

In view of the report of the General Secretary, we feel that the League work in the Conference is progressing rapidly, but we had hopes of having more new Leagues organized during the past year. In some of the larger cities notable success has been achieved in organizing. But it is certain that we should renew our efforts to crease the number of Leagues in the rural and village churches.

Last year the Epworth League as a whole scored its highest record for missionary contributions, giving for specials $34,122, and on the assessment $9,717, a total of $43,839. The Epworth League has volunteered to do its part in the Centenary Movement, and has taken over the entire African claim.

The Epworth League is certainly doing all in its power in the present war work. Two items of interest we note from the report of the General Secretary have been the placing of two annual subscriptions for the Era in each Y. M. C. A. house in America, and one hundred in France; and the gratuitous distribution for group study in the Leagues of 25,000 copies of a specially prepared Red Cross text book on home relief, entitled "This Side of the Trench With the American Red Cross."

At the recent General Conference some important changes were made in the Epworth League legislation which will appear in the new Discipline. Hereafter the Central Office is to be financed on the new plan of a Connectional assessment laid upon the whole Church, and it has been recommended by the General Conference that the Annual Conference finance the State League work. This Board therefore has asked the Commission on Finance for an assessment of $500.00 for the Conference League work and we trust favorable action will be taken to allow this amount.

We call upon the Pastors and Presiding Elders to assist in the promotion of Anniversary Day which has been set by the General Conference as the second day of May.

We take this opportunity of expressing our confidence and recognition of our splendid Conference Epworth League organization. We bespeak for them your support and sympathy and urge you to aid them in the work of the Conference, and to attend their meeting when at all possible.

The Epworth Era is continuing to be a very fine paper and deserves a more hearty support from our Leaguers.

Upon the request of our General Secretary we invite your attention to the following words quoted from his report to the General Conference: "Failure on the part of shepherds of Christ's flock to provide for their young converts just what the Epworth League gives has resulted in fearful losses to the Church. At least one-half of those received into the Church on profession of faith during the past ten years have lapsed and gone back to the world. There is call for immediate and powerful awakening upon the need of conserving the results of our revivals and Sunday School Decision Days. It certainly cannot be said that the Epworth League has been fairly tried so long as its membership numbers not over seven per cent of the membership of the Church. In 1916 our Bishops said of the Epworth League: "The organization harmonizes with every detail of our economy. It is, in fact, a part and parcel of the Church, a means set for the spiritual salvation and training of our young people and as a protection against the perils and temptations which beset their social and intellectual lives. There has not been before devised in our Church anything which fills the place meant to be filled by the Epworth League."

O. B. CROCKETT, Chairman.

P. C. REGAN, Secretary Pro Tem.

BOARD OF CHRISTIAN LITERATURE.

Your Committee on Christian Literature submits the following report:

The exhibit of our Publishing Agents for the fiscal year ending February 28th, 1918, was before us and we wish to call attention to several items of interest contained in this exhibit.

1. The volume of business done in 1918 was slightly greater than that of the preceding year.

2. The Church is still publishing the Advocate, Review and Era at a financial loss.

3. The total Assets of our Publishing interest are $1,684,000.

Believing that the success of the Centenary Movement is dependent in large measure upon the adequate circulation of Christian literature your Committee earnestly recommends:

1. That our people order all books and religious periodicals of all kinds from our own Publishing Houses, thereby, placing the patronage and support of the Church behind the Publishing Agents.

2. That biographical literature bearing upon Missionary life and enterprise, and ably written pamphlets bearing upon the stewardship of life and money, be freely circulated among our people.

3. That the General and Conference Organs be placed as far as possible in every Methodist home.

4. That the Preachers of the Conference make accessible to our people religious literature by having the same on sale at each Church.

W. O. SADLER, Chairman.

O. B. CROCKETT, Secretary.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY BOARD.

We note with pleasure the ever increasing demand for the Word of God in all the languages and dialects of the world. This increasing demand certainly represents a growing interest on the part of the people of the earth in the truth as spoken by the prophets and revealed in the life and teachings of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The American Bible Society, during the year 1916-'17, distributed more than 1,000,000 New Testaments among the soldiers of Europe. Now that our own boys are gathering by the thousands into the various mobilization camps of this country, and hastening to the battle-fields of Europe, the demand has become all the more urgent. This work being in perfect accord with the appeal of our great President to the soldiers to study the Word of God, and in accord with the prayers and hopes of thousands of fathers and mothers, as well as of the Church, the necessity is laid upon us in no small way to support the American Bible Society.

This Society, foreseeing a crisis growing out of this abnormal demand, and the abnormal prices of all materials, is making an appeal for a special fund of over $400,000.00 to enable it to face the task this year.

Let the pastors and laymen lay upon the hearts of the people the needs of this Society, and urge voluntary contributions to this worthy cause.

J. W. HUGHES, Chairman.

JAMES E. WRIGHT, Secretary.

BOARD ON TEMPERANCE AND SOCIAL SERVICE.

Your Committee on Temperance and Social Service desires to submit the following report:

In reviewing the history of the triumphs of prohibition, both in our State and Nation, we have occasion for great rejoicing in the wonderful progress which has been attained in the cause of temperance and sobriety. Years ago the movement found its first advocacy in the precinct, then the county, later the State, and finally it became a national issue; and now we rejoice to note that it is recognized to be one of the great world problems.

We call special attention to an amendment to the State Constitution to be voted on in 1919 for the adoption of State-wide Prohibition. We earnestly urge that our people be not lulled by any victories of the past, or by the hopes of the present, but that we faithfully and heroically by word and ballot drive this gigantic evil from our beloved Commonwealth.

We further rejoice in the prospects of National War-time Prohibition which we believe to be so near at hand, and before the expiration of which, we confidently expect that National Constitutional Prohibition will be enacted.

Now that this evil of intemperance is on retreat, therefore, be it Resolved, That we as ministers and members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, pledge our unflagging fidelity and courage to the destruction of this business, the path of which is strewn only with regrets and sorrow.

To this end we give our most hearty endorsement and pledge our most devoted loyalty to the Anti-Saloon League, its Board of Trustees, and to Dr. Palmer, its faithful and efficient Superintendent.

We recommend the election of the following named persons as trustees of the Anti-Saloon League of the State: M. S. Clark, W. E. Arnold, W. W. Ball, B. C. Horton, J. T. Morgan.

We call upon the ministry and membership of our Church to be most alert and active in their attention toward any issue, or the candidacy of any man, for any office, in which the weal or the woe of the Prohibition cause is involved.

Your Committee will give due consideration to the program of Social Service as outlined by the General Conference.

Respectfully submitted,

J. FRANK RICHARDSON, Chairman.

HENRY W. BROMLEY, Secretary.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

Your Committee on Sabbath Observance beg leave to submit the following report:

When God made man and gave him a place in the world, He set apart a Sabbath day and commanded it to be kept holy, in order that the spiritual nature of man might be developed and the cause of the Kingdom advanced. Inasmuch as there is a broad desecration of this holy day, we recommend that our preachers throughout this Conference sincerely impress upon our people the importance of keeping this sacred day holy, and that they abstain from all worldly pleasure on this day, such as visiting, ball games, Sunday excursions, Sunday editions of news papers, picture shows, joy riding, pleasure resorts, buying and selling, the opening of business houses and places of amusements, and the gathering of men and women at bathing resorts on this holy day; and that they neglect not the assembling of themselves together for worship on this holy day.

Furthermore we recommend, that the preachers of this Conference read these recommendations to their several congregations on the first Sunday after receiving the Conference Minutes.

J. W. HUGHES, Chairman.

S. W. DEAN, Secretary.

ORPHANS' HOME.

We, your Committee on Orphans' Home, beg leave to submit the following report:

We had before us the complete reports both from our President, Rev. A. P. Lyon, and our Agent, E. S. Boswell.

We have made special inquiry as to management and condition of the Home and its properties, and we are pleased to say that they meet with our unqualified approval. We find that very efficient work has been done, special care has been taken of the seventy-four children handled during the year, losing only one by death.

Financially, notwithstanding the increased cost of living, the Institution is in better condition than at any time during its history. Every expense has been met without disturbing one cent of the endowment or reserve funds, and a larger surplus is on hand than at any other time.

We find that the Sunday Schools of both conferences have nobly stood by the Institution, contributing more than at any other time since they have undertaken this work—an average of $4.35 per school.

We earnestly urge that the schools continue their support and that the preachers open their pulpits to our Agent, E. S. Boswell, for the presentation of this work. It is requested by our Agent that every Methodist who can, visit the Institution whenever in the city.

We voice the sentiment of our people in requesting the confirmation of the election of E. S. Boswell, Superintendent, and Mrs. Jessie Ray Williams as Matron.

We recommend that the Conference confirm the election of the following members of the Board: J. C. Strother, R. M. Smith, Rev. W. E. Arnold and Rev. A. R. Kasey for three years.

We append herewith the financial report of the President.

G. W. HOFFMAN, Chairman.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

All seven of the Records were in the hand of the Committee and carefully examined. We wish to commend the secretaries for the careful manner in which these records were kept. We noted very few mistakes or omissions in any of them. We have made mention of some of these small criticisms and placed them in the Record.

We note that in the Frankfort District Record no mention was made of adjournment. Otherwise this book was well kept.

Respectfully submitted,

S. J. BRADLEY, Chairman.

F. D. PALMETER, Secretary.

REPORT ON EVANGELISM.

We, your Committee on Evangelism, make the following report. Sixty-eight charges report one hundred and thirty-two meetings held during the year with seventeen hundred and forty-eight conversions and fifteen hundred and one additions. Fifty-six of these pastors signify their desire to help other brethren in one or more meetings and fifteen ask for assistance in meetings next year. We note a decline in the number of revivals held during the year throughout the bounds of the Conference and deplore that such was the case which no doubt explains in part why we had a decrease in additions to the churches during the year. We urge a revival effort in every church of the Conference during the coming year and we recommend that pastors who can, assist each other in such meetings, at least helping from Monday until Saturday if they can not be away from their charges on Sunday. We also desire that presiding elders help in as many revival meetings as possible in their respective districts thereby giving encouragement to this worthy cause.

E. K. PIKE, Chairman.

W. A. SWIFT, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON LAY ACTIVITIES.

The Committee of Lay Activities is composed of the Conference Lay Leader, W. W. Ball, and the District Lay Leaders as follows: J. T. Cannon, of the Covington District; P. H. Taylor, of the Danville District; B. M. Goldsborough, of the Frankfort District; J. M. Barker, of the Jackson District; Robert R. Friend, of the Lexington District; J. C. Burwell, of the Maysville District, and W. S. Hayes, of the Shelbyville District.

The District Lay Leaders were notified in ample time of the day and date of the meeting of the Committee on Lay Activities at this Annual Conference. There were but two of the Committee present, namely: J. T. Cannon and W. S. Hayes, and letters from P. H. Taylor and Robert R. Friend, giving satisfactory reason of their absence. I am sure that the District Lay Leaders throughout the year have, and were ready to discharge the calls made upon them, when possible and called upon by the Presiding Elders and preachers. During the year Dr. W. B. Beauchamp, the General Secretary of the Layman's Movement, wrote requesting that the District Lay Leaders each raise from his District one hundred ($100.00) dollars as a Special to help out our Missionaries in China, and they responded to the call as follows:

Danville District	$154 04
Frankfort District	77 00
Jackson District	49 00
Lexington District	103 50
Maysville District	126 00
Shelbyville District	100 00
Covington District	36 00
Total	$645 54

Then at your Conference held at Lexington, Ky., September last, the matter of raising the $3000.00 subscribed by the Conference to the Representative Church at Washington, D. C., was placed in the hands of your Conference Lay Leader with instructions that all pastors co-operate heartily with him in putting into effect and carrying to a successful conclusion his plans for raising said $3000.00. The whole of the sum has not yet been raised. There has been subscribed something near $1700.00, and of which $1431.00 has been collected and is in hand to be paid over. The whole of this subscription by the Conference should have been subscribed and paid. Your Conference Lay Leader is somewhat to blame and has not done the work on account of many other arduous duties on hand. I must say that all the pastors have not, as I have called upon them, heartily co-operated with me as they were instructed by you.

Respectfully,
W. W. BALL,
Conference Lay Leader.

REPORT OF WAR WORK COMMISSION.

The War Work Commission of the Kentucky Conference submits to you the following report:

The Commission was pleased to have present at the Conference and in the meeting of the Commission, Dr. E. O. Watson, Secretary of the General Commission on War Work.

We feel it is hardly necessary to call upon the members of this Conference to give their unanimous and enthusiastic support to the War Work program worked out and projected by our late General Conference. Certainly no Christian minister should for one moment hesitate to do his utmost to put the most wholesome and definitely Christian influence around our splendid young men who are so gladly risking their all for the principles—so distinctively righteous—for which we and our allies are now fighting.

We most heartily commend the Centenary Drive, not only because of its important provision for the financing of the War Work of the Church, but also because we feel that this whole movement is a providential one at this time.

We urge the brethren of the Conference, who have not already done so, to give immediate attention upon their return to their charges to the collection of their pro rata of the $300,000 emergency fund asked for recently by the General Commission for the purpose of meeting the immediate and pressing needs of the Commission in its work. The attention of the Conference is called to the fact that this emergency fund was supposed to have been collected last year and cannot be counted on the budget of the Centenary fund for the coming year. The whole $300,000 is greatly needed immediately by the General Commission and must be sent in very soon if this Commission is to meet its present and urgent needs.

We call the attention of those brethren who are fitted by age, education, etc., to enter the chaplaincy, to the great and grave responsibility of the Church in supplying its full quota of chaplains. We are informed that the new draft and the consequent additions to the fighting forces of our country will necessitate the practical doubling of our present force of chaplains, i. e., we now have about one hundred chaplains in the Army and Navy, the new Army will make it necessary for us to supply about one hundred more. Those who can enter this great field of service should give earnest and prayerful consideration to this call of our country and the Church.

W. E. ARNOLD, Chairman.

G. R. COMBS, Secretary.

GEORGE NICHOLAS BUFFINGTON.

There passed away in his own home at Erlanger, Ky., on Monday the 19th of November, 1917, one of God's noblemen, George N. Buffington, son of J. H. and Columbia L. Buffington, was born in Guyandotte, W. Va., in 1850. His parents moved to Covington, Ky., and in 1869 he joined the Kentucky Conference. He served Williamstown, Falmouth, Shannon and Sardis Circuit, Covington (the second charge, now St. Luke's), and Orangeburg Circuit. His health failing on this last charge, and taking a supernumerary relation, he moved to a farm on the Lexington pike two miles south of Florence where he resided for thirty-seven years, until he changed his residence to Erlanger in 1912.

In the year 1871 he was married to Eloise Reid, sister of Dr. Clarence F. Reid, who, by his able ministry and splendid leadership in China, Korea and at home as Secretary of the Laymen's Missionary Movement, was known and honored throughout the entire connection. Dr. Reid joined the Kentucky Conference while Brother Buffington was on the Shannon and Sardis Circuit, and during the years of his eventful life, the sympathy, prayers and fellowship beginning in that Methodist parsonage strengthened and steadied him for his great work.

No alliance could have been happier than that of George Buffington and Eloise Reid. Mutual respect, abiding affection and unity of purpose gave to forty-six years of married life a solidity, a joy and a significance that can hardly be measured. Their friends, their guests and the community felt the power of it all. The home had an atmosphere of refinement and a genuineness of hospitality, which made it a haven of rest and re-enforcing point to all, but especially to the many missionaries from foreign lands who found shelter there.

As a citizen Brother Buffington was notable for integrity, reliability, consideration of the rights and needs of others. The price of real estate was enhanced by his residence in the neighborhood. Personally his sturdy character, his scrupulous honesty, and his friendliness, for he was a lover of men, won the confidence of the people. The man who drove me to his home remarked: "Sir, he was as honest a man as God ever put up. He was my friend, and the friend of every man in this town. He knew us all, and called us by name."

President of the bank in Erlanger for four years, he in no sense became secularized. It was an interpretation of a larger opportunity for service during his enforced inactivity in the pulpit, and he supplied small charges in the neighborhood, as he was able, to the end of his life. There must have been some deep undercurrent of missionary conviction in the family. The noble father gave several thousand dollars to Mexico and a large sum for work in Suchow, China, establishing Buffington Institute in which at one time, under Dr. A. P. Parker, all our Chinese preachers had been trained. The son himself gave liberally to both these fields, early in life desired to be a missionary among the Indians, and left the bulk of his property to be administered by the General Board of Missions.

The passion for Christ and his gospel was strong in death. Though suffering intense pain he heard singing and preaching in his sleep. He was never a seeker of place among men. He had his eyes upon the hills, was fearless in his personal approach upon the subject of religion, despised sham, but was tolerant of the beliefs of others requiring of them only vital faith in Christ.

Sudden heart failure ushered in the end. Rev. C. B. Ribble of the Christian Church officiated at the service, Revs. Arnold and Sadler assisting, as they were not able to reach Erlanger until the last moment.

Two brothers and one sister survive, Mr. Eugene J. Buffington, President of the Illinois Steel Corporation; Mr. David T. Buffington and Mrs. Ida M. Simonin. To them, to Mrs. G. N. Buffington and Miss Eloise Reid, all of whom were present, and to his brethren in the ministry, I recommend his willingness to share with the great God

BISHOP W. R. LAMBUTH.

W. A. PENN.

Rev. William Alexander Penn, son of Louriotious and Nancy Ellis Baird Penn, was born January 30, 1856, in the pristine purity of a quiet country farm house. From the Penn family he inherited a vivacious, aggressive, noble spirit, from the splendid Baird family comes a pious strain of unadulterated blood. In childhood he attended the public school and was a classmate of my brother Will, a warm friend of my father's family, an ardent admirer of my brother Alex Redd's scholarship and ability as a preacher, a true friend and brother of mine in many ways. His father died when he was but a boy. Being energetic he took to business early. While a youth he met with the sad misfortune of losing a foot in the machinery of a horse-power thresher. This physical shock and handicap did not curb his energies nor dampen his ambitions for a preparation for life, but rather gave flame to the fire.

When in tender years he joined the M. E. Church, South, at Zion Church on Raven Creek in Harrison County, Ky. Not being clearly converted he was frank to seek instruction from mature Christians.

While in the college department of Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tenn., he was clearly converted and to the day of his translation gave an unequivocal testimony to the knowledge of the witness of the Spirit, and exhorted others to have a similar experience.

He also attended Normal School at Lebanon, O., and was well equipped to be an interesting and instructive speaker. As a conversationalist he excelled most of men.

As a preacher he was not a place seeker and did not count popularity but aimed at usefulness. He was licensed to preach in early manhood and as a local preacher acceptably filled the unexpired annual conference year at Williamstown when the pastor transferred to Florida early in the conference year of 1885-6.

He applied for admission into traveling connection of Kentucky

Conference in 1886 and continued in the same till September, 1914, when poor health caused him to take a supernumerary relation, which relation he sustained, till the call came from the Head of the church on high, Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock, February 4, 1918.

Servant of God thy labor is ended here. You rest, but your works follow and we miss you much.

In the Methodist Church in Brooksville in the year 1887, Rev. R. H. Wightman performed the ceremony which brought him into a happy married relation with Lillian May Tevis, the bright accomplished and pious daughter of Dr. R. M. Tevis, a cousin of Julia A. Tevis, founder of Science Hill, Shelbyville, Ky. His wife proved a very efficient help and strong support in his work. To this union there remain to sorrow with the widow, two daughters, Mrs. Naomi Short, Mrs. Jennie Reynolds, and a son, William. Two brothers survive, Thomas and Samuel, of Scott County, Ky. A large number of more distant relatives and a wide circle of friends are saddened by his passing.

Many times has he stopped with men who were laboring for him, and prayed with them till they became Christians.

He was a friend to the poor. Many shall rise up and call him blessed, for he helped many who were in need.

The Spirit of the Good Samaritan characterized his life at all times.

In the itinerancy he served Williamstown Circuit one year, Foster's Landing Circuit one year, Berry Charge three years, Petersburg two years, Mt. Olivet four years, Visalia one year, Mackville one year, Perryville four years, East Maysville one year, Hinton four years, Oddville four years, and New Columbus four years. He established Penn Grove Camp Ground, Mt. Olivet, Robertson County, in 1893, and held sixteen annual encampments, during which time he brought to the pulpit some very strong preachers and there were many saved at the altar.

He was a successful and popular pastor, always having conversions and additions to the church under his ministry.

He was a very capable and successful business man, but never let his business deter him from witnessing for the Master and pointing sinners to a personal Saviour.

He has traveled over the hill of life to the purple glow of its evening tide and rests beneath a palm of victory, while his family and friends wait awhile to weep beneath a willow of a deep sorrow.

May the Spirit of Him who robbed death of its sting and the grave of its victory be with and comfort the family and endue the church, he loved so fondly, with power.

On the morning of the 6th of February his funeral was conducted in the Methodist Church in Cynthiana.

Speaking of the death of a good man, Bishop Pierce has eloquently said: "Such a death is a public calamity. It is not a sparrow falling to the ground, a flower fading in the field, 'the sear and yellow leaf' afloat in the autumnal gale, and descending to earth, where its mates of the forest lie hueless and dead. A light is quenched, and the darkness grows deeper. The world is bereaved of a conservative influence. The prayers he would have offered are lost; and if 'the effectual, fervent prayer of the righteous man availeth much,' how great the loss! The family loses a guide and a guardian, the Church an example, the country a benefactor."

To the death of no man in our ranks can these words be more appropriately applied than to the death of W. F. Taylor. He lived long among us, and lived well. He built up a most excellent character; he had a long and fruitful ministry; he left his impress upon all the interests of his Conference during the time of his connection with it; he was wise in counsel; successful in leadership; rich in friendship; great in his benevolences; a man among men; a workman that needeth not to be ashamed; a brother beloved! In his death the public has indeed suffered a calamity, and everyone of us has sustained a great loss.

William Fletcher Taylor was the son of Thomas Hinde and Susan B. (Westlake) Taylor, and was born in Crittenden, Ky., January 3, 1839. In his boyhood he attended the common schools and, for a time, a school of higher grade. I do not think he ever had the advantages of a college course. For several years during his early life, he engaged in business, and it was probably during this time that he came to Covington, and became attached to Scott Street Methodist Church. Here he was converted in October, 1857, and was licensed to preach in April, 1862. In September, 1863, he was admitted on trial in the Kentucky Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and remained in unbroken connection with this body for nearly fifty-five years. He died at St. Petersburg, Fla., April 23, 1918, having entered upon his eightieth year.

When Dr. Taylor entered the ministry, he brought to his work a well-disciplined mind and a heart full of devotion to his Master's cause. His piety was always deep and uniform and dominant. While denied the mental training that comes with a college course he largely made up for this lack by adopting for himself a well-selected course of study, and holding himself rigidly to it until all his habits of thought and preparation were systematic and well-directed. He was remarkable for poise and sound judgment. His capacity for business was notable. Indeed, if he had given himself over to a business career there is little doubt that he would have taken his place among the great masters of commerce. He had almost a genius for the management of affairs. The more delicate and difficult the situation, the more clearly were manifested his wisdom and tact and skill. And these powers he always exerted in the interests of peace and unity in the Church of Christ.

Never a great preacher, Dr. Taylor was always a good preacher. Never rising to the sublime, he never fell to the merely commonplace. He did not have the voice and grace of the great pulpit orator, but his sermons were always practical, well-prepared, and well-delivered. They were "good to the use of edifying." He never trifled. He was studious. He had a splendid library. He read good books and mastered them, and brought forth out of his storehouse things new and old. The first Index Rerum I ever saw in a preacher's study I saw in his. Fortunate any people to sit under such a ministry.

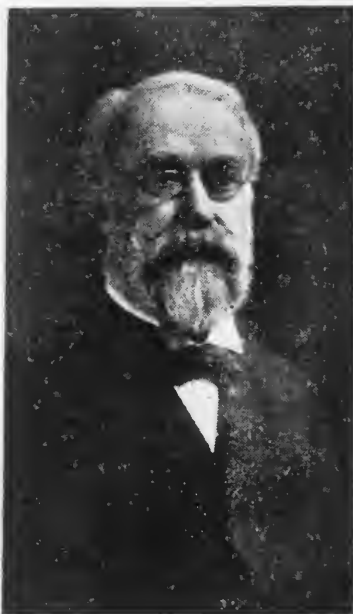

He excelled as a pastor. Here was his forte. He loved his people and loved to be among them, and constantly sought their spiritual well-being. His visits were not merely social, nor did he go into homes for the purpose of exchanging the small talk of the day. Wherever he went he was the man of God. He visited his people as their preacher, and by their firesides, and in their places of business, as well as from the pulpit, he preached to them the gospel of the Son of God and lead them to faith in him. Like a faithful shepherd, he knew his flock, and knew their troubles and needs, and knew how to give them sympathy and counsel and help. Few men among us have been so successful in the management of the affairs of a charge. When he went to a church, he scanned the field to see what was needed to be done, then laid his plans, marshaled his forces, and lead on with such steadiness and tenacity of purpose that he seldom failed to accomplish the

Speaking of the death of a good man, Bishop Pierce has eloquently said: "Such a death is a public calamity. It is not a sparrow falling to the ground, a flower fading in the field, 'the sear and yellow leaf' afloat in the autumnal gale, and descending to earth, where its mates of the forest lie hueless and dead. A light is quenched, and the darkness grows deeper. The world is bereaved of a conservative influence. The prayers he would have offered are lost; and if 'the effectual, fervent prayer of the righteous man availeth much,' how great the loss! The family loses a guide and a guardian, the Church an example, the country a benefactor."

To the death of no man in our ranks can these words be more appropriately applied than to the death of W. F. Taylor. He lived long among us, and lived well. He built up a most excellent character; he had a long and fruitful ministry; he left his impress upon all the interests of his Conference during the time of his connection with it; he was wise in counsel; successful in leadership; rich in friendship; great in his benevolences; a man among men; a workman that needeth not to be ashamed; a brother beloved! In his death the public has indeed suffered a calamity, and everyone of us has sustained a great loss.

William Fletcher Taylor was the son of Thomas Hinde and Susan B. (Westlake) Taylor, and was born in Crittenden, Ky., January 3, 1839. In his boyhood he attended the common schools and, for a time, a school of higher grade. I do not think he ever had the advantages of a college course. For several years during his early life, he engaged in business, and it was probably during this time that he came to Covington, and became attached to Scott Street Methodist Church. Here he was converted in October, 1857, and was licensed to preach in April, 1862. In September, 1863, he was admitted on trial in the Kentucky Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and remained in unbroken connection with this body for nearly fifty-five years. He died at St. Petersburg, Fla., April 23, 1918, having entered upon his eightieth year.

When Dr. Taylor entered the ministry, he brought to his work a well-disciplined mind and a heart full of devotion to his Master's cause. His piety was always deep and uniform and dominant. While denied the mental training that comes with a college course he largely made up for this lack by adopting for himself a well-selected course of study, and holding himself rigidly to it until all his habits of thought and preparation were systematic and well-directed. He was remarkable for poise and sound judgment. His capacity for business was notable. Indeed, if he had given himself over to a business career there is little doubt that he would have taken his place among the great masters of commerce. He had almost a genius for the management of affairs. The more delicate and difficult the situation, the more clearly were manifested his wisdom and tact and skill. And these powers he always exerted in the interests of peace and unity in the Church of Christ.

Never a great preacher, Dr. Taylor was always a good preacher. Never rising to the sublime, he never fell to the merely commonplace. He did not have the voice and grace of the great pulpit orator, but his sermons were always practical, well-prepared, and well-delivered. They were "good to the use of edifying." He never trifled. He was studious. He had a splendid library. He read good books and mastered them, and brought forth out of his storehouse things new and old. The first Index Rerum I ever saw in a preacher's study I saw in his. Fortunate any people to sit under such a ministry.

He excelled as a pastor. Here was his forte. He loved his people and loved to be among them, and constantly sought their spiritual well-being. His visits were not merely social, nor did he go into homes for the purpose of exchanging the small talk of the day. Wherever he went he was the man of God. He visited his people as their preacher, and by their firesides, and in their places of business, as well as from the pulpit, he preached to them the gospel of the Son of God and lead them to faith in him. Like a faithful shepherd, he knew his flock, and knew their troubles and needs, and knew how to give them sympathy and counsel and help. Few men among us have been so successful in the management of the affairs of a charge. When he went to a church, he scanned the field to see what was needed to be done, then laid his plans, marshaled his forces, and lead on with such steadiness and tenacity of purpose that he seldom failed to accomplish the desired ends. His work in this respect might well be adopted as a model for our younger men.

In an active ministry of forty-five years, Dr. Taylor was pastor of only nine charges. He was agent of Kentucky Wesleyan College one year, and Presiding Elder of the Covington District two years. His first work was Winchester. Here he remained two years, the limit under the law then existing. Then followed four years at Paris and two at Newport, which pastorate was broken at the end of two years by the College Agency of one year. After this, he served four years at each of the following places: Versailles, Nicholasville, Danville, Scott Street, then back to Winchester and Danville, then to Shelbyville four years, Maysville two years, Nicholasville again four years, then two years on the Covington District. To three of these charges he gave two terms each, spending twenty-two of the forty-five years at Winchester, Danville, and Nicholasville.

Dr. Taylor was a member of the Centennial Conference of Methodism at Baltimore, in 1884, and delivered one of the missionary addresses of that Conference. He was a member of the General Conference at Richmond, Va., in 1886, and also of the General Conference at Birmingham, Ala., in 1906. He was appointed one of the representatives of our Church in the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America in 1906.

The devotion of Dr. Taylor to Kentucky Wesleyan College was one of the outstanding features of his life. The importance of this Institution to Kentucky Methodism was fully understood by him, and he gave to it his very best endeavor for many years. He became a member of the Board of Education in 1880, and was elected President of the Board, which position he retained until he resigned in 1911. The service he rendered the College during his lifetime was beyond estimate. In his death he remembered the College with a bequest of $15,000. Add to this bequest the contributions made during his life, and W. F. Taylor is the largest contributor to the educational work of our Conference. By carefulness in his expenditures and by good management, he left a considerable estate, the bulk of which he willed to missions and education. He loved and served the Church during life, and in his death he manifested the same strong affection for it. Kentucky Wesleyan College honored itself when, in 1901, it conferred on him the degree of Doctor of Divinity.

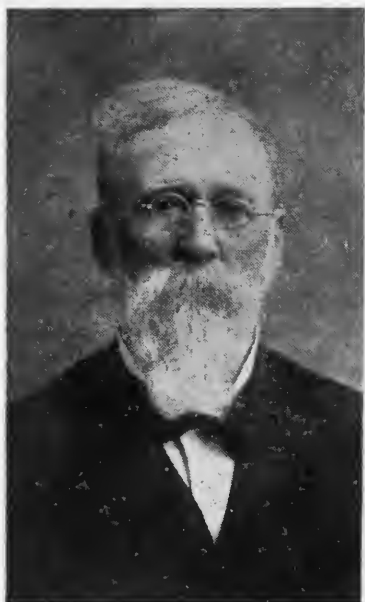

On June 30, 1869, Dr. Taylor was married to Miss Mary E. Price, who gave him most loving and tender companionship, and was indeed a helper in his work. She died in September, 1906. During his second year on the Covington District, Dr. Taylor was stricken with inflammatory rheumatism, and was never able to resume his active labors. He suffered much during these years of affliction, but was patient and uncomplaining. Faith sustained him, the promises of God brought consolation and comfort, and the hope of immortality, like a glorious sun, shined away all despondency and gloom. His death was a triumph over mortal ills, as his life was a victory over the passions of the flesh and the allurements of a wicked world.

Thus has passed from us one of the best of our men. Who that ever knew him can ever forget him! What a Christly man he was, gentle, tender, yet strong and true! What a great friend! Touching this point calls to mind that trio of brothers in Christ, Taylor and Southgate and Deering; and reaching back into the years a little and taking into the sacred circle Walker, Noland, Poynter, Dodd, and others! One of the joys of Heaven will be in the renewal of such associations.

JOHN R. PEEPLES.

Rev. Jno. R. Peeples was born in Henry County, Tennessee, March 20, 1840, and died May 1, 1918. His father was an itinerant Methodist preacher in Tennessee and his mother was a woman of superior Christian character.

He was reared in a home of the old-fashioned Methodist type, and was converted and brought into the Church in his early boyhood. He had five brothers, four of whom were Methodist preachers. There were three cousins of Jno. R. Peeples brought up in the home of his parents, who also became Methodist preachers. They were Jno. Randle, Richmond Randle and Thomas Randle. Arthur Davis, a unique and powerful preacher of early days in Tennessee, also received the religious impressions in this same Christian home that led him to Christ and into the ministry. Others could be mentioned who dated the beginnings of their Christian lives from the wholesome and holy influences of the Peeples home.

Jno. R. Peeples' mother was reported to have said frequently that "John was destined to do much good or much harm in life." He began early an educational preparation for usefulness and service, but was interrupted in that preparation by the outbreak of the Civil War. He enlisted in the Confederate Army in one of the first companies formed in Tennessee and became a valiant soldier. His mind desired ends. His work in this respect might well be adopted as a model for our younger men.

JOHN R. PEEPLES.

Rev. Jno. R. Peeples was born in Henry County, Tennessee, March 20, 1840, and died May 1, 1918. His father was an itinerant Methodist preacher in Tennessee and his mother was a woman of superior Christian character.

He was reared in a home of the old-fashioned Methodist type, and was converted and brought into the Church in his early boyhood. He had five brothers, four of whom were Methodist preachers. There were three cousins of Jno. R. Peeples brought up in the home of his parents, who also became Methodist preachers. They were Jno. Randle, Richmond Randle and Thomas Randle. Arthur Davis, a unique and powerful preacher of early days in Tennessee, also received the religious impressions in this same Christian home that led him to Christ and into the ministry. Others could be mentioned who dated the beginnings of their Christian lives from the wholesome and holy influences of the Peeples home.

Jno. R. Peeples' mother was reported to have said frequently that "John was destined to do much good or much harm in life." He began early an educational preparation for usefulness and service, but was interrupted in that preparation by the outbreak of the Civil War. He enlisted in the Confederate Army in one of the first companies formed in Tennessee and became a valiant soldier. His mind was so stamped with the indelible impressions of the war that he carried the memories of that unparalleled struggle to his very last days. Yet he was bravely and sincerely submissive to the outcome of that struggle, and was a loyal and patriotic citizen.

He received a bullet wound in the spine at the battle of Missionary Ridge which sent him staggering and suffering to the hospital, and from which he never fully recovered. Many years after the war he suffered a stroke of paralysis as a result of that wound.

Sometime during the period of war service he secured a license to preach and afterward joined the Tennessee Conference. On account of pneumonia and threatened tuberculosis of the lungs he transferred to Texas. From there he was driven the next year by severe chills and fever to St. Louis, Missouri. The next year he was sent to a prairie circuit in Missouri, where his health was still poor, so he was transferred the next fall to Kentucky Conference, where he labored long and hard until the Conference placed him on the superannuate list to wait and suffer the Master's will, which he did await and suffer with manly courage and Christian fortitude.

He served prominent circuits and stations, and humble, poor charges, and filled the office of presiding elder with ability and acceptability; and in all those positions he was the same honest, fearless, faithful, orthodox, old-fashioned Methodist preacher.

He would say what he thought and do what he conscientiously believed to be right regardless of consequences. He was no trimmer or time-server. He never forgot or betrayed a friend, and always found it a little hard to forget the injuries done him by his enemies, although he tried faithfully to forgive them and prayed for them as our Lord taught that we all should do.

Jno. R. Peeples was a man of convictions and devotion to principle. He suffered many hardships and privations, and worked always with unflagging zeal. He had the missionary spirit, was evangelistic and progressive. He formed new congregations, built houses of worship, promoted revivals, worked hard for the circulation of the church papers, patronized and advocated the Church schools and colleges, and stood in his place as a fearless defender of the doctrines and polity of his Church.

He enterprized and promoted and participated in some notable debates between preachers of our Church and other denominations. Yet he was fraternal and charitable.

He had great interest in young people, especially in young men preparing for the ministry. His hand was always held out to help the poor and struggling; many burdened and heavy-hearted preachers were helped by his brotherly sympathy and substantial assistance. He was always "on the side of the under dog," as he expressed it.

His integrity was unquestioned; his faith firm and unshaken; his service loyal and effective. He was a loving and indulgent father, a true and noble husband, a kind and generous neighbor, a wide-awake, public-spirited citizen, a faithful minister of Jesus Christ.

Jno. R. Peeples stood out among men as a man of information, a man of opinions, and of transparent honesty.

Though he suffered much and labored hard, he was also the recipient of many honors and favors. He had many devoted friends among the preachers and was loved by many of the people and respected by everybody. During his last years many people in Winchester showed him great favor and kindness, for which he expressed his sincere appreciation.

His family provided for him every possible comfort and gave him constant attention during his many months of lingering and painful illness. The physicians did all they could to relieve him and attended upon him in the midst of his unusual suffering. Though the flesh was weak and he was sometimes mentally infirm, his brave spirit never faltered.

Before his mind wandered he assured his friends and loved ones that his way was bright and clear for the future.

Brother Peeples' first marriage was to Miss Addie Murphy, of Fulton, Ky. She lived only about two years and died, leaving a daughter, Addie, who was present as a faithful attendant at the bedside of her honored father during his illness, and lives to mourn her loss.

His second marriage was to Mrs. Ellen Gardner, of Irvine, Ky., who has been a faithful companion in all his joys and sorrow, and still survives to cherish the memory of her husband. His other two accomplished daughters, Mary and Pauline, are with their mother, to cheer her home and comfort her heart. The entire Conference, the whole Church connection, and many outside friends will deeply sympathize with this wife and the three daughters in their great grief and loss.

MRS. J. R. WORD.

Rebecca Berry Word, wife of J. R. Word, was born at Mt. Olivet, Ky., December 27, 1865, and departed this life September 28, 1917. On April 8, 1884, at Mt. Olivet, she was married to Rev. J. R. Word. To this union were born six children: Ethel, Horace, James, Beulah, Carroll and Thalma Word, all of whom survive her.

She was brightly converted in a meeting at Mt. Olivet, held by C. E. Boswell, in 1886, and joined the M. E. Church, South. Later on at Tollsboro in a meeting held in the M. E. Church, while standing in the presence of the writer and others, she shouted, saying, "Something brushed me," and from that glorious moment she claimed the blessing of entire sanctification. Her life ever afterward proved the truthfulness of this statement. She did not have to tell those around her that she was a Christian; her life was an index of that fact. Her neighbors and friends believed in her, and loved her. As much as any woman, her children took her to be a princess. They seemed to be afraid for her to get out of sight for fear she would be gone. As a mother she was loving and kind, as a neighbor she was accommodating, as a friend obliging, as a Christian she was believed in, and as to meeting the grim monster, death, possibly at a time unsuspected, she was triumphant. In the exhilaration of that approaching hour, in the midst of bidding good bye to her family, she raised in joyful triumph, exclaiming, "It is grand, it is grand," and once more, repeating the language of Paul, she exclaimed, "O death, where is thy sting."

Indeed a good woman has gone from us to join the angelic hosts above. Her lonely and bereaved husband and children will miss her, her friends and the church will miss her. But she has gone home. Let us emulate her example and meet her over there.

EDWARD ALLEN.

MRS. J. J. DICKEY.

Mrs. Ida Phillips Dickey, beloved wife of Rev. John Jay Dickey, of the Kentucky Conference, died at Hutchison, Ky., October 5, after a lingering illness which lasted many months. Her life was useful and beautiful, and the end was peace! The "Woman's Who's Who in America," 1916, contains the following concerning her:

"Dickey, Ida Phillips (Mrs. John Jay Dickey), school teacher, music teacher, milliner, deaconess. Born at Weston, Nicholas County, Ky., January 25, 1861; daughter of Martin Penn and Nancy D. (Lawson) Phillips. Educated in public schools of Fleming County and high school of Vermont, Ill., and Chicago Training School for Home and Foreign Missionaries and Deaconesses.

"Married in Flemingsburg, Ky., January 24, 1901, to Rev. John Jay Dickey. Teacher ten years in Kentucky, Iowa and Illinois, ten years milliner in Vermont, Ill., ten years Superintendent of Sunday School, President of Epworth League five years, rebuilt church, supervising finances and construction at Vermont, Ill. Established a Deaconess

Home and hospital in Peoria, Ill., 1898, acting as financial agent. President of Kentucky Conference Home Mission Society, 1902-1907. Conference Corresponding Secretary of same 1907-1912, Chairman of Committee of Kentucky Federation of Woman's Clubs on State Schools of Reform near Lexington, Ky.

"Favors Woman Suffrage, author of articles in church papers and local newspapers. Has written several poems. Member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. Progressive Prohibitionist, member of the Woman's Missionary Society, W. C. T. U., King's Daughters, Southern Sociological Congress. State Sunday School Association. Recreation, music, driving, reading. Organizer of the Woman's Improvement Club of Stanford, Ky. Federated with Kentucky Federation of Woman's Clubs."

She was more than an ordinary woman. In fact she was an extraordinary person. She had marked intellectuality, deep religious consecration, and forceful personality. She claimed attention always in public assemblies where she appeared, whether it was to give Bible readings, lead devotional services, discuss important literary or religious questions, or participate in parliamentary discussions. She was heard on all such occasions with pleasure and profit.

Her special training was for deaconess work, but as she married in less than two years after her consecration to deaconess service, she broadened her efforts to cover the larger field opened to her as the wife of an itinerant Methodist preacher.

The Woman's Missionary work was a cause always near her heart, and she wrought faithfully and effectively in that service for several years.

She bore the duties and cares of home life, and of necessary changes demanded by our itinerant system, with fidelity and patience. She was a great help to her husband in his ministry, and true to her many friends.

The impression for good on the community at Hutchison, and at Oxford, during the last four years of her life, which she spent with her husband in the active pastorate of those two churches, will only be known in eternity.

A large congregation, from both communities, attended the funeral services on Sunday afternoon at the Hutchison Chapel, and listened with approval and manifest emotion to the words of praise and appreciation spoken in the funeral sermon concerning her.

She is survived by her husband and a sister, Mrs. Mary Fleming, of Flemingsburg. They, with all others who loved her, will be lonely without her, but we shall meet her again, after awhile.

MRS. F. W. NOLAND.

The subject of this sketch, Mrs. Emma Duty Noland, departed this life May 26, 1918, at her home in Nicholasville, Ky., after a long period of ill health. She was the widow of Rev. F. W. Noland of the Kentucky Conference M. E. Church, South, to whom she was married December 4, 1873. This union was blessed with three daughters and a son, Mrs. Amanda N. Willis, Mrs. Nancy N. Mosley and Stephen D. Noland, of Nicholasville, and Mrs. Mary N. Holloway, of Lexington, Ky.

Sister Noland was the daughter of Charles M. and Nancy Thornton Duty, of Bethel, Bath County, Ky., where her only sister, Mrs. W. P. Given, resides. She was born January 2, 1854, was educated in the public and private schools of her native county, and was graduated from Millersburg Female College, June, 1873. During her college life she was converted in a great revival in which Brother Noland did the preaching. She had joined the Methodist Church earlier in life. To the charm of beauty were added those of refinement, modesty, culture, gentleness and firmness. She had a winning personality. Her devotion to her husband and her children and her loyalty to her church and her God were always put ahead of any thought of herself. Her home was a happy one, being filled with the fragrance of a mother's and a father's love. She was not demonstrative in her religious life, but kept steadily on the way, by her example inviting others to go with her. We would commend to the children the God of their father and mother assuring them of the happiness to be enjoyed and the heaven to be attained by those who love and serve Him.

J. J. DICKEY.

MRS. ORSON LONG.

Mrs. Nannie O. Long, widow of Rev. Orson Long, of the Kentucky Conference M. E. Church, South, was born in Lawrenceburg, Kentucky, July 20, 1829 (I have been unable to learn her maiden name). She was first married to a Mr. Howard, a Confederate soldier, and was his widow when she married Rev. Orson Long, July 30, 1877. Brother Long served in the itinerancy through a long life, and died January 11, 1887. He was three times a widower. Sister Long was a woman of strong character and filled well the relation she sustained to the church as a minister's wife. She was greatly beloved by Brother Long's family. In a letter from Mr. T. J. Adams, Superintendent of the Masonic Widows' and Orphans' Home, Louisville, Ky., in response to my inquiries he says, "Mrs. Nannie O. Long came to the Masonic Widows' and Orphans' Home December 20, 1909, and was called to that beautiful Home beyond the skies, September 11, 1917. Mrs. Long's death was due to the infirmities of age. She was a good Christian woman, and was loved by all in the home. She was a member of the Virginia Avenue M. E. Church, South, Louisville, Ky. Her funeral was held at the home of her sister, Mrs. Fannie Bennett, 929 28th street, Louisville, and was conducted by her pastor, Rev. C. K. Dickey, assisted by another minister, and she was buried in beautiful Cave Hill cemetery. She was a beneficiary of Robert Burns Lodge No. 163, Newport, Ky."

Thus has passed to her reward one who cheered the heart of an aged itinerant preacher, and smoothed his pathway to the tomb.

J. J. DICKEY.
